GUIDING QUESTIONS

Say the picture name slowly. Which letter represents the sound at its start?

Show me how you checked your work on Matching 1.

Facilitation Sequence

1 Introduce the worksheet

Look at Matching 1. Read the title and printed directions aloud together.

Watch for: Check that students can locate the first task before starting.

TEACHING TIP · A useful prompt here is: "Say the picture name slowly. Which letter represents the sound at its start?"

2 Work through the printed tasks

1. Draw a line from each letter to its picture. 2. Draw a line from each big letter to its small letter.

Watch for: Name the pictured objects first. For letter-picture matching, compare the initial sound with the letter. For case matching, name the uppercase and lowercase forms before connecting them.

TEACHING TIP · A useful prompt here is: "Complete the tasks in the order printed on the page."

3 Review together

Revisit the completed parts of Matching 1. Ask the student to point to their work and explain or demonstrate one choice.

Watch for: Use the actual printed examples when checking a response; do not infer an answer from the worksheet title.

4 Choose a next step

Review progress towards: Match a letter to a picture beginning with its sound

Watch for: Record which task was completed independently and which needed modelling. Revisit the same printed task with support if needed.

Likely Student Responses, Misconceptions, and Helpful Teacher Moves

Anticipate these — and the response that moves thinking forward.

Begin Matching 1 without following the printed direction.	The task language or order may need clarification.	Read the direction aloud and ask the student to point to where they will begin.

Need more practice with this skill: Match a letter to a picture beginning with its sound	The skill may still need modelling or practice.	Name the pictured objects first. For letter-picture matching, compare the initial sound with the letter. For case matching, name the uppercase and lowercase forms before connecting them.

Equity, SEL, and Trauma-Informed Prompts

Equity

Perspective invitations you can offer students — a second context, a missing voice, a different lived reality.

Offer oral directions and time to become familiar with the worksheet pictures. Do not assume that every pictured object is familiar.

SEL

The emotional and interpersonal demands of this task — confidence, disagreement, frustration points, collaboration.

Use specific feedback about a strategy or effort. Allow a pause and another attempt when the task becomes frustrating.

Trauma-Informed

Participation safety and predictability — a private response option, lower-stakes sharing, predictable structure.

Keep the task sequence predictable. Offer private sharing and do not require personal or family disclosures about the pictures.

UDL, Differentiation, and Language Supports

If students need more support

Scaffolds for the same core thinking: oral rehearsal first, sketch or sort before writing, a worked example, chunked steps.

Name the pictured objects first. For letter-picture matching, compare the initial sound with the letter. For case matching, name the uppercase and lowercase forms before connecting them.

Cover later tasks temporarily and work through one printed direction at a time.

If students are ready for more

Extensions that add complexity, not busywork: compare two approaches, justify a choice, transfer to a new context.

Ask the student to explain how they checked a completed task on Matching 1.

Invite another example orally; treat this as an optional extension, not an extra printed question.

Language supports

Name the language function (explain, compare, argue, justify) with sentence frames and oral rehearsal.

Read each printed instruction aloud and pair the action word with a demonstration.

Allow pointing, oral rehearsal, or a response in a familiar language before a written response.

Assessment Look-Fors and Next Steps

What to look for

Criterion	What it looks like here	Possible evidence	Helpful next step
Match a letter to a picture beginning with its sound	The student demonstrates this skill in the corresponding printed task.	Observe the completed task and ask the student to explain or demonstrate their approach.	Model the part that needed support, then offer another attempt on the same task.
Match upper case letters to their lower case partners	The student demonstrates this skill in the corresponding printed task.	Observe the completed task and ask the student to explain or demonstrate their approach.	Model the part that needed support, then offer another attempt on the same task.

Tell taught letters apart from one another	The student demonstrates this skill in the corresponding printed task.	Observe the completed task and ask the student to explain or demonstrate their approach.	Model the part that needed support, then offer another attempt on the same task.
