

Find the adverbs

Read the story. Underline the six adverbs that tell how something happens. Then write them below.

An adverb can tell how something happens. Many adverbs end in ly. The snail moves slowly.

A trip to the sugar shack

In March, Omar and Dad went to a sugar shack in Quebec. Omar hopped out of the car quickly. They walked quietly through the snowy maple woods.

Omar carefully peeked into a sap bucket on a tree. Inside the shack, the sweet syrup bubbled loudly in a big pan. The cook gently poured hot syrup on clean snow to make maple taffy.

Omar and Dad ate pancakes with maple syrup happily. "Let's come back next spring!" said Omar.

① Write the six adverbs you found. _____

② Finish the sentence with your own adverb. _____

The puppy ran _____ to the door.
