

| Summer addition stories

Read each summer story. Line up the digits, add, and write the answer with a unit.

1. A farmers' market on Île d'Orléans, Quebec, sold 2475 baskets of strawberries in June and 3168 baskets in July. How many baskets did it sell in the two months?

Answer: _____

3. A summer reading club at a library in Manchester, England, read 1296 pages in its first week and 1587 pages in its second week. How many pages did the club read?

Answer: _____

5. An ice cream stand in Mérida, Mexico, sold 1438 mango cones, 1290 lime cones and 875 coconut cones. How many cones did it sell in all?

Answer: _____

7. A lake campground had 3406 campers in July. In August it had 509 more campers than in July. How many campers came in August?

Answer: _____

2. On Canada Day, 4382 people swam at the beach in the morning and 2745 people swam in the afternoon. How many swimmers were there that day?

Answer: _____

4. A ferry between the mainland and Vancouver Island carried 1875 cars on Saturday and 2968 cars on Sunday. How many cars did the ferry carry that weekend?

Answer: _____

6. A family drove 1248 kilometres to a provincial park. Then they drove 1395 kilometres to visit their cousins. How far did they drive?

Answer: _____

8. The summer fair had 5207 visitors on Friday and 3896 visitors on Saturday. How many visitors came on the two days?

Answer: _____