

Homophones: their, there, they're

Their, there and they're sound the same but mean different things.

THE RULE

- their means it belongs to them: their tickets
- there names a place, or starts there is: over there
- they're is short for they are: they're hungry

EXAMPLE They're feeding their fish over there.

① Write their, there or they're in each sentence. _____

- | | |
|----------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| 1. Otters float on _____ backs. | 2. _____ feeding the seals. |
| 3. The jellyfish are over _____. | 4. Sharks swim in _____ tank. |
| 5. Is _____ a gift shop? | 6. Seals clap when _____ happy. |
| 7. Our coats are over _____. | 8. My cousins lost _____ tickets. |

② Each sentence uses the wrong word. Write it the right way. _____

9. Their are two turtles in the tank. 1 fix

10. The crabs hide in there shells. 1 fix

11. Their so good at swimming. 1 fix

12. The penguins waddle to they're pool. 1 fix

③ Write one sentence about the aquarium that uses their, there and they're. _____
