

The joy of reading

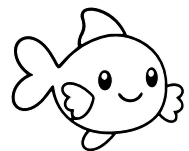

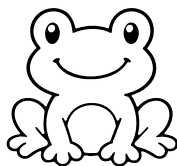

Listen to the story with a grown-up. Then answer the questions.

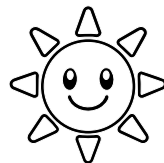

Siobhan's library day

On Saturday, Siobhan and her grandad walk to the library in Belfast. Siobhan picks a book about a big green frog. Grandad picks a book about the moon. They sit on a soft rug by the window. Grandad reads the frog book out loud, and Siobhan laughs at the frog's funny jumps. Then Siobhan tells Grandad a story of her own. "You are a great storyteller," says Grandad. Siobhan smiles. Reading with Grandad is her favourite thing to do.
