

I Prepositions

A preposition tells where something is: on, under, beside, between.

THE RULE

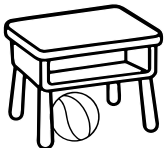

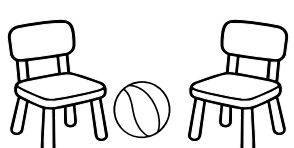

- A preposition shows where one thing is compared with another.
- Some prepositions: in, on, under, over, above, beside, between, behind, through, across.

EXAMPLE The dog naps under the bench.

EXAMPLE A bird flies above the swings.

① Where is the ball? Circle the word that tells where. _____

1.  	2.  	3.  	4.
above below	on in	under beside	behind between

② Circle the preposition in each sentence. _____

- | | |
|--|---|
| 5. The squirrel ran up the tree. 7. We ate lunch under a maple. 9. Leo crawled through the tunnel. 11. The cat napped on the warm rug. | 6. Hana hid behind the slide. 8. The kite flew over the pond. 10. My bottle is in my backpack. 12. We walked across the bridge. |
|--|---|

③ Write a sentence about the picture at the top. Circle your preposition. _____
