

Adverbs aplenty

An adverb tells how or when something happens. Many adverbs end in -ly.

BANK

gently

early

quickly

carefully

brightly

happily

loudly

quietly

① Write the best adverb from the bank in each sentence. _____

1. Grandma _____ carried the hot tourtière to the table on Christmas Eve.
2. At the posada, our neighbours sang _____ at the front door.
3. Snow fell _____ on the roof all night.
4. We woke up _____ on Christmas morning, before the sun came up.
5. My little brother _____ tiptoed past the stockings.
6. The lights on our street shone _____ in the dark.
7. Mia _____ tore the paper off her gift.
8. Callum laughed _____ when his Christmas cracker went pop.

② Write two sentences about a winter holiday you enjoy. Use an adverb in each one. _____
