

Let's read a poem

Read the poem with a grown-up. Clap when you hear two words that rhyme.

Little Snail

Little Snail goes slow, slow, slow,
Up the garden, row by row.
Past the daisies, past the peas,
Underneath the tall green trees.

When the rain begins to fall,
Snail says, "I don't mind at all!"
In his shell he's snug and dry,
Waving as the clouds go by.

Draw a line to join the words that rhyme.
