

I Guess the state

Each riddle is a state talking about itself. Use the clues to name it.

STATES

Texas

Maine

Hawaii

Michigan

Arizona

Washington

Louisiana

Alaska

South Dakota

Florida

California

New York

1 Read the clues. Write the state on the line. Two states in the box are not used. _____

1. I am the largest state by area. Canada is my neighbour to the east. My capital is Juneau.
I am _____

2. I am a chain of islands in the Pacific Ocean. I have active volcanoes. My capital is Honolulu.
I am _____

3. I am a peninsula in the Southeast. Rockets launch from my Cape Canaveral. My capital is Tallahassee.
I am _____

4. The Grand Canyon is inside my borders. I am in the Southwest region. My capital is Phoenix.
I am _____

5. The Statue of Liberty stands in the harbour of my biggest city. My capital is Albany.
I am _____
6. I am the second-largest state by area. The Rio Grande runs along my border with Mexico. My capital is Austin.
I am _____

7. I am made of two peninsulas. I touch four of the five Great Lakes. My capital is Lansing.
I am _____

8. More people live in me than in any other state. I am on the Pacific coast. My capital is Sacramento.
I am _____

9. Four presidents' faces are carved into Mount Rushmore in my Black Hills. My capital is Pierre.
I am _____

10. I am the only state named after a president. I am in the far northwest. My capital is Olympia.
I am _____

2 Write your own riddle about a state. Give three clues. _____
